PROGRAM UPDATES:

Joana offered congratulations to Sarah Bowman on her newly appointed position on the SENM College Board and welcomed Matt Hutchinson to the Executive Coalition Board and joined us today for the Community Board meeting. Joana went on to report that the Coalition has just hired a new employee, Esther Hernandez, and she will be starting tomorrow. She also reported the Coalition is looking for people to share their stories about families affected by fentanyl and other drugs as well. They are also working on a grant to cover the hiring of a staff to cover Suicide Prevention and have had some help with the Carlsbad Police Department.

Samantha Smith reported on Eddy County Teen Court and stated that they have had 8 cases over the last month. She went over the schedule for November and added they are closed for Thanksgiving week.

Regarding OSAP, she reported they completed SYNAR in 2 days (over 100 stops). They will be working on Safe Storage and Disposal informational bags that will be disbursed through Meals on Wheels in November. Samantha stated that they worked on outreach and making connections at the Mayor's Oil and Gas Summit as well.
