Factoid of the Month:

In addition to the 350,831 people who died directly from COVID-19 in 2020, the disruptions and stress resulting from the pandemic contributed to many additional deaths. Preventable drug overdose deaths increased 34.4% in 2020, from 62,172 in 2019. In 2020, 83,558 people died from preventable drug overdoses – an increase of 649% since 1999. These deaths represent 91% of the total 91,799 drug overdose deaths in the United States, which also include suicide, homicide, and undetermined intents.
