PROGRAM UPDATES:

Julie Fuentes reported that Loving students worked on rock painting for a garden. The All Stars program will be wrapping up for the year in May with a celebration to complete it. "No underage drinking" is the message for this end of school year event. Sources of Strength is focusing on physical health currently. A wall art project took place at Alta Vista called "Spring Cleaning" which involves students identifying healthy activities and including clouds, raindrops, and the sun. Students at Carlsbad High School conducted an egg hunt which included motivational quotes. ECHS students covered what mentors are and what characteristics are involved in being a one to others. Hannah Ornelas covered the Teens In Action program and reported that 7 teens are involved. They completed a Keep Carlsbad Beautiful trash pickup and will use the $500 raised there towards holding a 5K event on April 20th at the Carlsbad Beach.

There will be prizes and giveaways and if anyone wants to help, let her know. A free youth event at the mini-golf course will be held in June. Joana Wells reported that the marijuana training for the community was held on March 18th. No community members attended. Joana went on to cover the prep work happening for Prom 2024 and upcoming "Senior Skip" days and asked the group for any drinking spots to recommend to police for scouting for underage drinking activities
